Chief Assistant State Attorney Amira Fox has been appointed to a special Florida Bar committee entitled the Special Committee to Study the Unethical and Illegal Solicitation of Legal Business.

Chief Assistant Fox is also chairing a sub-committee of the Special Committee to Study the Unethical and Illegal Solicitation of Legal Business. This sub-committee is tasked with gathering information from around the state regarding the unethical and illegal solicitation of legal business.

“I am pleased to be able to participate in these important committees,” said Chief Assistant Fox.
