For Immediate Release

July 21, 2008

Former Cape Coral City Councilman Mickey Rosado pled guilty in open court today to two first-degree misdemeanor charges: Attempting to operate as a broker without a license, and misuse of confidential information. Attempting to operate as a broker is a lesser included offense to the original felony charge of operating as a broker.

Pursuant to a plea agreement between the State and the defense, which was accepted by Circuit Judge Thomas Reese, Rosado was formally adjudicated guilty of both offenses, and was sentenced to 1 year of probation on each charge, to run consecutively for a total of 2 years probation. He was also fined $1000 ($500 per count), and ordered to pay court costs of $210 and prosecution costs of $50. In addition, he was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $10,000 to Maria Giraldo.
